

Demands construction of urinal in Cuttack

Cuttack: 'My Bus', 'My Bike', 'My Bus Stop' are great, but why is it my Twin Cities? It was no longer pleasant to see the lonely place on the street. Other than that, the capital, Hooke Cuttack, is such a lonely place. Searching for a place will be fatal.

Spending crores of money to make the city glow, yet did Laghushka forget the grief?

The government has a variety of plans for the people. But this very small plan has not happened yet. But the plan is to be the biggest.

Cuttack: The heart of Odisha. People from different districts come here every day. However, with the announcement of various plans in Cuttack, there is no urinal plan.

That's why social workers are demanding the construction of a toilet today. Members of the family have demanded the construction of urinals in various parts of Cuttack.

The CMC commissioner has also demanded that the Rs 5 million coming to Netaji's hometown be used for toilets and immediate parking in Netaji's hometown.

After hearing all this, the CMC commissioner requested that all the main locations be identified and the list removed. "It simply came to our notice then.
